YOUNG RESIDENT IS VICTIM OF SUDDEN AILMENT

MEMORIAL PARISH HOUSE AT PASS DEDICATED WITH BISHOP GREEN PRESENT

Bay St. Louis Joins Pass Christian in Eventful Ceremony — Gulf Coast Convocation Marks Occasion With Opening Service Monday Night

The Gulf Coast Convocation of the Episcopal Church opened Monday at Trinity Church, Pass Christian, preceding the dedication Monday night of the Grace Morton Parker Parish House, recently completed and adjacent to the church building. It is a memorial to Mrs. Grace Morton Parker (Mrs. Arthur Parker) who for many years had a summer home on West End Pass Christian beach, and was made possible by the munificence of her sisters, Mrs. Walter M. Briggs, Mrs. John M. Satterfield, and her children: Robert M. Parker, Phillip Parker, Mrs. L. H. Trabue. The building is quite a handsome and substantial structure, containing an auditorium, stage, choir room, lockers. It will be used for Sunday school purposes, and also for social and other work incidental to the church.

Bishop Wm. M. Green, D. D., officiated at the dedication ceremonies, assisted by the clergy, namely, Rev. Girault Jones, pastor Trinity Episcopal church, Pass Christian; the Rev. Emerson, Gulfport; the Rev. E. A. de Miller, Biloxi; the Rev. Charles Liles, Bay St. Louis. The event was largely attended by people from Pass Christian, Bay St. Louis and from other points along the Gulf Coast. The gift is well noteworthy.

Tuesday, the second day, brought the proceedings of the convocation to an end.

Trinity Guild held its annual election of officers Friday night. Mrs. C. B. Adams was elected president, Mrs. Myrtle S. McDermott, vice-president, and Miss Effie Terrell, secretary-treasurer. The retiring officers were Mrs. L. H. Barksdale, president, Mrs. Bidwell Adam, vice-president, and Mrs. Myrtle McDermott, secretary-treasurer.

CRIPPLED HITCH-HIKER PICKED UP AND TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Claims He Was Injured By Hit and Run Driver—Regains Consciousness and Leaves

James Miller, who gave his age at 28 and his home address Albany, N. Y., was picked up on the Old Spanish Trail at the intersection of Ulman and Dunbar avenues and admitted to the King's Daughters Hospital.

Regaining consciousness after he was prepared for an examination on the operating table by local physicians, he talked and asked for breakfast of which he ate sufficiently to satisfy the appetites of three people.

He said he was on his way from Ohio to California and was hitch-hiking when, according to his story, he thinks he was struck by a bus or truck somewhat similar. However, he could not give a definite story and his remarks were without sequence.

He walked with the aid of crutches and was found on the hard surface of the highway, surrounded with considerable blood spilled, flowing from wounds found in his head.

Physicians at the hospital said his condition, after an examination, indicated a number of bruises about the head and neck as well as the upper portion of his body.

At the Bay St. Louis King's Daughters Hospital he was given prompt and every immediate aid and assistance possible and made comfortable for the (Tuesday) night.

King's Daughters Hospital Notes

Mrs. L. Sardis of Kiln dismissed Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah Faye of Kiln, dismissed Tuesday.

Mrs. Jack Williams suffering from nose hemorrhage reported improving.

Mrs. Albert McKean, Lakeshore, medical case, reported improving.

Mr. Yoder Miller, medical case, dismissed.

POPULAR LOCAL NITE CLUB TO PRESENT ALL HALLOWE'EN NIGHT

Five-Dollar Entrance Prize To Be Given to All Attendants—$25 Guessing Contest.

Uncle Charlie's Nite Club will celebrate All Hallowe'en Saturday night, October 26, when the management will present for public approval "The United Artist Orchestra," said to be one of the best aggregations of dance musicians to be presented locally.

In addition to the $25.00 cash guessing contest, now in progress each and every Saturday night, in addition thereto there will be given on Saturday nights a cash $5.00 entrance prize.

This is an entirely new departure and will prove an additional attraction to the already popular club.

For All Hallowe'en celebration, Saturday night, appropriate favors will be presented and Uncle Charlie promises there will be fun for all. A genuine All Hallowe'en celebration is in store for all who will attend. The management promises this and will see that it will be had.

In view of the fact of the $25.00 prize and the $5.00 Saturday night entrance prize and favors, etc., there will be no advance in price.

TO MEET AT GULFPORT NEXT WEEK

Annual Convention King's Daughters and Sons—Bay St. Louis to be Well Represented

Mrs. A. F. Fournier, president King's Daughters, came out from New Orleans, where she is spending the winter and attended the regular monthly meeting of the local order, held at The Answer.

The meeting received various reports and the conduct of the Bay St. Louis hospital and its work all proved of satisfactory and gratifying results.

Considerable interest was manifested in the forthcoming annual convention of the King's Daughters and Sons of Mississippi, to be held next week at Gulfport, beginning Tuesday, October 27, 30 and 31, with headquarters at Hotel Markham.

The banquet will be held at the Markham on the night of Wednesday for delegates and also for guests of delegates and members of the organization. Guests may make reservations at so much per plate, a small reservation fee of 75 cents charged.

Mrs. Fournier is enthusiastic over the outlook for a large attendance and that the activities of the convention will result in much good. The King's Daughters are engaged in merciful work, administering to the sick and fallen. Than this no greater work exists in the fields of the layman.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED FOR SUNDAY

Miss Miriam Boudin, attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Boudin, will be married Sunday afternoon 3 o'clock, at the Catholic rectory of the Church Our Lady of the Gulf, to Mr. Will Carbanet, residing in this county at the "Y" section of Highway 90, after which celebration there will be a quiet reception at the home of the bride's parents, who are well and widely known in this section, both Mr. and Mrs. Boudin representing two of the oldest resident families of this section of the Coast.

Taken the Red Cross life saving course years and years ago, dropped to her knees and began rhythmically to force air into and out of the lungs of the little girl.

"Five minutes passed, then, finally the child began to stir. Her breathing started and within half an hour she was practically normal. "It is all well and good to have the willingness to help others when an accident happens, but willingness isn't enough—we must know how to help," Mr. Jones said. "The principles of first aid and life saving are simple, but if we are going to reduce this territory's water accident death toll, everyone—men, women, boys and girls—will have to learn them."

MONEY FOR CROSSING AT POINT

Government Allots Sum For R. R. Crossing at Henderson Point—New School for Pass

Harrison county receives confirmation of an allotment of $211,000 from PWA for elimination of a railroad crossing—meaning either an underpass or a viaduct,—where the L. & N. railroad crosses at Henderson Point on Bay St. Louis. This is west of Pass Christian and east of Bay St. Louis, at the terminus of both the railroad and auto bi-county bridges.

This is quite a bit of money allotted for this little crossing, particularly since it is located in an isolated section where neither weed nor tree, shack nor building obscures the view, however, should it be the means of saving one solitary life it will be worth the money many times over. We have always contended that a human life is the one greatest possession, precious to the very utmost. And only too often it is snuffed out by some lunatic who sits at the auto wheel without a scintilla of sense or responsibility.

Seemingly this is a lot of money, however, let it come. The government is going to spend it elsewhere and why not get it down this way, affording protection against accident and giving labor to the many who would work, even though there are many who do not care to work, expecting the government to give and receive nothing in return.

Pass Christian has received approval of its request for construction of a new public school building at cost of $94,000. The Pass and the children of our sister city across the Bay are well deserving of this betterment and it cannot become a reality any too early. Let us have the new school on the beach at the Pass, that our tourists and others may see it in admiration of the Coast and let us have our underpass at Henderson Point even though it cost the reputed amount of $211,000. What is that to the government? Merely a bagatelle. However, the tax-payers will later be called upon to pony up. Why worry today. We live today; we might die tomorrow.

First Methodist Church To Observe Week Of Prayer November 3 to 9

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church of Bay St. Louis will observe its annual Week of Prayer from November 3 to 9, inclusive. Services will be held on three afternoons of the week, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 3:30 o'clock, at the church. All members of the society and friends interested invited.

OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION

Proclaiming All Saints' Day as Holiday

SINCE November 1st of each year is known as All Saints' Day and a time set aside especially when special tribute is paid to the memory of the dead; when the public visits the cemeteries and decorates the graves with flowers and religious ceremonials is the order of the Day, and it is fitting that one and all visit the "cities of the dead" and pay respect by their visit and in prayerful solicitation.

And since All Saints' Day is recognized over this entire section of our Southland, and in some places a legal holiday, and in Bay St. Louis always a day of thought and consideration as befitting such occasion.

Therefore, I, G. Y. Blaize, mayor of the City of Bay St. Louis, do issue this as the City's official proclamation declaring FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1935, a holiday; and, further, officially requesting that all places of business be closed on that day, in order the public engaged in business and others employed may visit the cemeteries and pay respect to the memory of the departed.

Done at the City Hall this 25th day of October, A. D. 1935, and witnessed by the city's official seal.

G. Y. BLAIZE, Mayor.

Attest: W. L. BOURGEOIS, H. GRADY PERKINS, Commissioners.

BAY LIBRARY REVIEW OF MONTH CLUB TO HAVE NOV. PROGRAM

Movie Fans May Procure Books of Forthcoming Film Productions at Local Theater

The Board of Managers of the Hancock E. R. A. County Library requests that friends of the library, attending the November meeting of the Review of the Month Club, come prepared for a general discussion of the life of Catherine the Great of Russia. The discussion will follow the review of the popular biography, Catherine, Portrait of an Empress, which will be the feature of the meeting. It will be given by Mrs. C. C. McDonald of Bay St. Louis. The Current Events speaker for the occasion has not been chosen; announcement will be made later.

The library is in receipt of a mending kit of old or damaged books. Don't throw away your old libraries. Give them to be reclaimed for the pretty, sunlit reading rooms over the Hancock County Bank.

Movie fans of Bay St. Louis will be interested to learn that the original plays from which the two talking pictures, Accent On Youth and The Farmer Takes a Wife, (soon to be shown at the A. & G. Theater here) have been made and may be obtained from the pay shelves of the library in the volume called The Best Plays of '34, '35. While lovers of the fine art of narrative essay in its more deceptively simple forms, may be interested to learn that Clarence Day's two most recent and delightful prose works, God My Father and My Life With Father, have also been obtained for the pay shelves out of the local fund. Because of the wide demand for My Life With Father, due to its recent choice for distribution by the Book of the Month Club, the libraries were at some trouble in obtaining the Day Books.

Our personal suggestion for a book for Thanksgiving reading is the short and picturesquely presented history of medicine called, "Devils, Drugs and Doctors," by Dr. Howard W. Haggard of Yale University, which has been lent to the library by Mrs. Carl Marshall of Bay St. Louis. Lest the casual reader of titles only accuse us of a perverted or distorted taste in reading, it is possibly just as well to explain that we consider it great cause for thanksgiving that people no longer have to be tied with ropes and slaughtered in full consciousness to have a leg cut or undergo a major operation; that it is fortunate that someone articulate enough to tell the tale of how we have progressed since then, also possessed a sense of humor and a sense of drama to give it salt and interest for the hurried reader; and that aside from the brilliantly selected illustrations, which are a delight to any dispassionate collector of well chosen woodcuts, it should give people a warm feeling to think of belonging to the same race as men like Lister, Pasteur, Pare and far-sighted Hippocrates.

TO SELECT HARVEST QUEEN

This Friday Evening at 6—Festival Ball Next Wednesday Evening at College

Friday—Tonight at six P. M. the voting for the Queen of the Hallowe'en Ball, to be held at St. Stanislaus College next Wednesday night will come to an end. Much interest and enthusiasm was shown during the last few days and it is thought that the balloting will be very close. The committee in charge of counting the votes will meet in the lounge room at 7:30 P. M. This committee is composed of the following:

Mrs. Ed. Carrere, chairlady; Mr. Norman Renshaw, Mr. John Scafield, Brothers William and Alexis, Mesdames Harding, Elliott, Tudury, Seals, Grevenberg, Rugan and A. P. Smith.

Queen Leah I will be crowned next Wednesday evening at the Hallowe'en Ball. This ball will be the first of the social activities of the year at St. Stanislaus, and is under the auspices of the Mothers' Club. The ladies have been devoted to the preparations for this affair and it is hoped the people of Bay St. Louis in vicinity will respond heartily in order to make it a great success.

Peranich's Orchestra will furnish the music and after the grand march and crowning of the reigning sovereign of the evening, dancing will take place until the "night has turned her course unto the dawn." The College Band will play for the grand march.

"The Harvest Queen" is something novel in Bay St. Louis. In the late winter there is the Carnival Queen. In Spring the May Queen holds her court. It is only fitting that the season of plenty should have its own gentle sovereign. For this cause, have the ladies of the Mothers' Club established this festivity with the hopes of making it an annual affair. The Queen will bear the name of Leah in honor of the gentle goddess of the harvest.

An entrance prize of a bowl of fruit, given by Mr. J. R. Scharff, will be awarded to the holder of the "vote" which will be drawn out of the hat by the Queen during the intermission, will be awarded a beautiful boudoir chair.

Twenty-six gentlemen will act as escorts to present the maids to the King and Queen and for the general floor committee, namely:

Dr. A. P. Smith, K. W. Pepperdene, Dr. J. A. Evans, Dr. B. L. Ramsay, Chas. G. Moreau, Edw. I. Jones, Owen Crawford, Norman Renshaw, Harry "Wop" Glover, Ogden Kergosien, Henry Osoinach, Geo. R. Rea, Leo W. Seal, L. S. Elliott, Mrs. A. Breath, Sr., Ed. J. Arceneaux, W. J. Gex, Jr., Joseph R. Scharff, Alden Mauffray, Norton Haas, C. J. Gordon, Edw. Carrere, ex-Officio; Waldo Otis, Gerald Grevenberg, Roland Weston, Rene de Montuzin, Jr., chairman.

These gentlemen, together with the members of the Committee on the arrangement of the Court, will meet Sunday afternoon at 5:00 P. M., in the College Gym for a rehearsal of the court. All are kindly requested to attend.

BANDERET'S GROCERY MOVES

Contents of Charles Banderet's Grocery, Maurig building, Main street, were moved to the Vairin building, corner Main and Second streets, this week, the latter grocery closed out following the late death of Mr. Vairin. Mr. Banderet wanted more room and a corner location.

Antoine J. Saucier, life-long resident of Bay St. Louis, died at his home in Nicaise avenue Tuesday afternoon, October 22, at 2:30 o'clock, a victim of acute dilation of the heart caused by indigestion.

Saucier was in the employ of Victor Cuevas, resident distributor for a New Orleans brewery, and was en route home from New Orleans, driving a truck loaded with beer, accompanied by Ulyses Cuevas, son of his employer.

Both men, in a hurry to leave and hasten home with their cargo, had partaken of a roast beef sandwich, it was said. Some time after that, before leaving New Orleans Saucier complained of feeling ill. A drug store was resorted to where he was given a dose of bicarbonate of soda.

However, the trip home was in progress when Saucier complained of violent pains in the chest and down his left arm unable to further drive. Cuevas took the wheel. A stop was made at Slidell, but Saucier's condition grew worse and he was hurriedly taken home.

A physician was summoned and emergency aid brought into use proved unavailing.

Loosing consciousness he soon passed away. The attending physician, it was stated, found his patient in a most precarious condition, with the faintest pulse-beat possible.

News of the sudden passing away of this splendid young man soon spread over the city and was a shock to the many friends of the deceased and his family.

Funeral On Birthday

Antoine J. Saucier was a native of Bay St. Louis, born October 23, 1902, aged 32 years, 11 months and 29 days, his funeral taking place Wednesday afternoon, 4:30 o'clock, on his 33rd birthday.

He was a son of the late Joseph D. Saucier and Sidonia Ladner. Some years ago he married Miss Carmelita Loiacano, a daughter of Anthony Loiacano, well-known resident of this city. To this union five children were born. A brother, Alvin J. Saucier, resident of Lafayette, La., who attended the funeral, also survives.

Many Attend Funeral

Many friends from adjacent sections of Louisiana and Mississippi attended the funeral, one of the largest noted here. Rev. Leo F. Fahey conducted the ceremony of the Catholic faith at the home, church of Our Lady of the Gulf, and at St. Mary's cemetery, where a freshly-made mound in the new section was banked high and wide that evening with beautiful flowers, among the many designs one from the Order of the Maccabees of which deceased was a member.

The tragic passing away of this splendid and useful young citizen under such circumstance is deeply deplorable and brings a flood of sorrow. The family have the sympathy of the community.

Country Birthday Party Thursday November 14, Benefit Convent

Don't forget that good time you promised yourself, that some day you hoped to be able to attend a real Country Birthday Party. The time is soon here. On Thursday, November 14, 1935, at 8 P. M. at St. Joseph Academy Gymnasium Uncle Hiram celebrates his birthday with a gay old Character and Tacky Party.

Now this means that everyone in Bay St. Louis and nearby towns are cordially invited to attend Hiram's Party dressed in Tacky costume or representing any well-known funny paper, movie or popular character and try to win one of those valuable prizes offered by the St. Joseph Parents' Club.

You are invited whether you are dressed tacky or not, but I am sure if the old trunk or cabinet is rum-sacked that everyone, young and old will be able to find a real comical costume to wear at Hiram's Birthday Party. There will be lots of good things to eat and music aplenty—Advertisement.

IN TESTIMONY OF BETTER TIMES

CLAYTON RAND, astute editor and keen observant mind who presides over the destinies of the editorial page of The Guide, published at Gulfport, has returned from one of his periodical trips thru the country on a speaking and canvass tour over an itinerary that took him to Nashville, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Chicago, New York City and Ocala, Florida.

Reviewing the situation Clayton says "there is no longer any doubt in this scribe's mind with reference to definite improvement in business."

"Hotels in the various cities are crowded to a point that one is only safe when making reservations. This applies as well to Pullmans on the main-traveled routes. One sees long queues winding their way in front of theater ticket-booths, and the usual cry along Broadway's curb, 'Standing room only.' And then there is, more important, the outspoken optimism of business men in every walk of life testifying that things are on the up. Taxicab drivers talk of increased fares, and the little shopping done by your scribe in Chicago and New York found department stores crowded with women fighting their way to the bargain counters. Business is good again.

"There were, on some days at the World Series, more fans beyond the gates clamoring for admission than filled the bleachers."

OVER IN LOUISIANA

ABE SHUSHAN of New Orleans for whom the airport in that city has been named, and a political ally of the lamented Senator from Louisiana, is on trial by federal authorities for alleged evasion of payment of some $71,000 income tax dues. This is one of the several suits of the kind that has been filed.

Evidence has not exactly proven favorable, far from it. But somewhat damaging. It was revealed during the earlier stages of the trial the defendant had received and handled considerable funds, deposits in local and New York banks and to reconcile the fact that he possessed so much of an income, like the celebrated ghost, will not down.

The main plea on the part of the defense is an attempt to show that much of this money was received and paid out for political purposes and not personally owned and used for personal transaction.

However, in view of the circumstances of the alleged charges and political complexion of the set-up in Louisiana, the outcome is being watched with more than ordinary interest inasmuch there are several similar cases to follow.

A jury Wednesday returned a verdict of not guilty.

NO EXPENSIVE CAMPAIGN FOR PAT

THERE will be no expensive campaign for Senator Pat Harrison next year. He could not if he so wished. He is a poor, working man and it takes all he makes for living and incidentals, the latter for other people. It is accepted he will have opposition, in the person of our own distinguished governor, according to current report.

This from a Jackson paper gives additional slant:

"Take this tip from one who knows: Pat Harrison has no funds with which to stage an expensive campaign for re-election. During the past five years most of his salary has been spent paying hotel bills in Washington for impetuous friends seeking Federal jobs. Another tragedy of politics."

Next to the President, Pat is the biggest man in the country.

AN AMUSING REASON

ACCORDING to newspaper reports, the Trustees of the Chicago Church Federation, representing 1053 churches of eighteen Protestant denominations, have declined an offer of funds from the Works Progress Administration for the extension of church educational and recreational activities. It seems that local W. P. A. officials offered the services of relief clients to assist in the recreational program of Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish institutions.

The Sea Coast Echo is not interested in the decision of the Trustees, although rather amused at the reason given. The Trustees thought that acceptance of the offer would "be subject to interpretation as, or construed to be, a violation of the principle of separation of church and state."

We wonder if the Trustees have ever heard that the property of churches, in almost every state, is exempt from taxation.

FOR A NEW DEPOT AT M'COMB

EDITOR Emmerich of the McComb Enterprise has launched a campaign for a new railroad station and President Downs has "promised" to give the subject attention at some future date. Both the Enterprise and Jackson News are devoting columns to the subject.

However, it might be well to remember, while we would like to see McComb get its much-needed depot building, there would seem little reason for the company spending so much money since, it is said, everybody who travels in and out of McComb does so on a railroad pass. Try to laugh that off, please!

GULFSIDE SEEKS FUNDS

RECENT fire at Gulfside, religious, recreational and educational center for the Negro, at Waveland, causes a loss that the organization and institution cannot very well sustain. On the contrary, the furnishings of this main building carried not one cent insurance, hence a total loss. This will have to be replaced if the work of Gulfside is to continue unhampered. Policy on the building was for only $5,000, a mere fraction of value and will possibly be only a start for a new structure.

It is well known that Gulfside was beneficiary of funds from various national and other funds, including the Rosenwald and other organized means from which gifts and contributions were forthcoming. However, with the depression these funds became exhausted for the reason there was no source of replenishment and Gulfside, as a consequence, has suffered severely, crippling its endeavors and even the progress of its routine.

There are many private purses over the country willing in a modest way to help such cause, for the uplifting and betterment of the Negro, to grant him better understanding and to make for him a better and more useful citizen.

It is to this and a general class of people the plea for contributions is directed. Recently the New Orleans Item published an article editorially that well establishes the argument and asks succor for the cause. The Sea Coast Echo reproduces this editorial elsewhere and commends it to the reader who may in any way be of assistance.

Bishop R. E. Jones has long won the respect and regard of the country for his work, and sincerity of purpose. His unselfishness is outstanding. He asks nothing for himself. His position is established. He seeks only for others. This manner of man is entitled to consideration.

PAUCITY OF WAR NEWS

OUR readers in great measure, if not wholly, depend on the New Orleans daily press for their war news and at best this is meagre, with all regard to the admirable facilities of the newspapers of our adjacent metropolis.

Although the world at large knows roughly that Italian troops have invaded Ethiopia, definite and precise information as to the military efforts in the campaign have not been available. Generally, the world has been told that Aduwa has been occupied by the Italians thus, to their satisfaction, at least, wiping out the memory of the Italian defeat there in 1896, other than this, and the occupation of certain territory just South of Eritrea, the world knows very little.

This absence of definite information can be readily explained. News from Addis Ababa is limited two ways—in the first place, the government itself has very inadequate and imperfect means of communications with the armies to the North and Southeast and, secondly, foreign correspondents there have very little avenues by which any information they might gain can be transmitted to the Western world. From the Italian side, the only news which can seep out to the outside world is such information as the Italians themselves choose to give out. Naturally, therefore, definite information as to the campaigns under way will be tardy in reaching the interested public.

BABSON PREDICTS PROSPERITY

THE average reader will be interested in the prediction of Roger W. Babson, statistician and economist, whose column in every afternoon edition of the New Orleans States is read with interest and enlightenment, that the nation will be out of the depression in six months, he added for a period of prosperity.

Mr. Babson does not undertake to tell how long the new era will last, contenting himself with the observation that it may be of short or long duration. He believes that there will be an active stock market, rising commodity prices and full employment of labor, but that notwithstanding, "our standard of living will decline."

In explaining this last statement, which seems to be out of line with the "period of prosperity, talk, Mr. Babson says that living standards will decline because "this administration, in spite of many admirable things it has done, has taught the people that they can be made comfortable without working, and can get security by legislation."

FOR PROTECTION FROM ENCROACHMENT

THE City of Bay St. Louis in administrative matters has accomplished many strides in more ways than one. Zoning the business section against fire hazards, maintaining certain traffic regulations and one way streets are all very well. But we might go one more step and zone certain residential sections from business encroachment. A property owner might build a fine dwelling in a choice residential section but he has no protection guaranteed from commercial invasion, possibly a cheap shop or stand that might, in a measure according to the standards of the locality, prove public nuisance.

BYRD PLANS ANOTHER TRIP

ADMIRAL Richard B. Byrd, whose recent expedition spent a year and a half in exploring Antarctica intimates that he might make a third trip to the land of snow and ice in order to clear up a few secrets about how micro-organisms got in the mountains so far to the south.

Of course, nothing is definite because it will require a few years to complete the scientific data gathered on the last trip. Afterwards, we suspect the same force will lure the admiral back into the wastes which have attracted so many great explorers in the past.

THE NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1936

Why do we say The New Ford V-8 for 1936?

What is new about it?

Of course, the newest engine in the low-price car field is still the V-8 engine. Since Ford made it available to all car users (keeping it as economical as cars with fewer cylinders) the Ford V-8 has been the newest engine on the market, and remains the newest for 1936.

You may buy a car on minor "talking points"—some specially advertised feature "with the car thrown in"—but, after all, it is the engine you buy when you buy a car. Hence we put the engine first.

Other new points about the car make a long list.

Its lines are much more beautiful. The hood is longer and sweeps forward over the distinctive new radiator grille, giving the car a length and grace that are instantly impressive. The fenders are larger, with a wide flare. Horns are concealed behind circular grilles beneath the headlamps. New steel wheels.

Ford upholstery—always of sterling quality and excellent taste—is rich and enduring. The appointments of the car have a new touch of refinement. There is no question about the increased beauty of the Ford V-8 for 1936.

In more practical matters, many improvements have been made—Steering is made easier by a new steering gear ratio. The cooling system circulates 5½ gallons of water through a new, larger radiator. Natural thermosiphon action is assisted by two centrifugal water pumps. New style hood louvers permit a rapid air-flow around the engine.

Easier, quieter shifting of Ford gears—The gear shift lever now travels a shorter distance.

The two qualities you want in brakes—Brakes that stop the car with ease and certainty. Ford Super-Safety Brakes of the long-tested, fool-proof, mechanical design.

Safety—as always—in the electrically welded genuine steel body. Safety Glass all around at no extra cost. Hundreds have written grateful letters because this glass has protected the safety of their families.

A car you can drive without strain all day, if you like, in city or country. Steady, holds the road, responds to the driver's touch like a well-trained horse. You don't have to "push" or "fight" the Ford V-8—driver and car easily get on terms of good understanding with each other.

An engine has much to do with the roominess of a car. Very much indeed. A long engine uses up car space. The compact V-8 engine permits much of the ordinary engine space to be used by passengers.

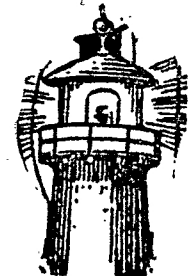

It really is a great car in every way, this 1936 Ford V-8—the finest, safest, most dependable Ford car ever built. Now on display by Ford dealers.

LAME DUCKS AND DOINGS

The state legislature in its lame duck session probably is enjoying itself with all the attractions offered at the capital and from all appearances will extend their conference for a couple more weeks, although they have been here three weeks already—Biloxi News.

The session has been appropriately named. Lame is correct.

Possibly, even probably, there is no connection between the two ac-

Biloxi when funds were sought with which to build G. C. M. A. and of "the many unpleasant incidents that led to the rule against Biloxi" and that "Gulfport citizens own, control and help support this, high-ranking military school."

These facts, as reported, are regrettable and no wise will help a situation to which there seems no remedy unless there be a renaissance of better spirit between the coastal towns. There has, according to report, always been an antipathy of feeling between both places, which disposition will bring neither place anything. There should be a better sentiment for mutual survival and a feeling of understanding should be sought and permanently established.

tions, but the Board of Supervisors at the same meeting at which they ordered a special election to determine whether beer shall be outlawed in the county, also authorized sale of $15,000 of bonds for a new county jail.—Brandon (Rankin Co. News.)

Beer has never give any jail occupant. It is a healthful and strength-giving beverage. You can drink so much of it and no more.

ATTEMPTING TO EMBARRASS HUGH WHITE

The tax reduction question, recommended for consideration of the present special session of the Mississippi legislature by Governor Comer, apparently is destined to be left as a problem for the incoming Hugh White.—Clarksdale Register.

The recommendation of drastic tax reduction by an outgoing administration smacks of politics. That should be left to the new administration.

FAIRY TALE

In his announcement of September 29, President Roosevelt said that improving business had fortified the government's financial position. He forecast that the curves of tax collections and federal expenditures would soon meet and predicted that the deficits for the next two fiscal years would be much less than were originally estimated. He then said that it was highly unlikely that any new increased taxes would be necessary.—West Point Times-Leader.

The forecast sounds of the "fair and warmer" variety. It is hard to reconcile it with the belief of the average voter and tax-payers.

TRY THIS ON YOUR PIANO.

Did you ever try having a baby on Thursday morning and writing a column like this Thursday night—try it sometime—it can't be done.—Ed Lipscomb in Gulfport Guide.

Neither we nor anyone else has tried having a baby on Thursday morning or any other morning, but we have written many a column under the most trying and difficult circumstance, practically when there was nothing to write about.

A KIND WORD

Compliments usually make people feel good and think well of the speaker, be they truthful or not.—Yazoo Sentinel.

The average compliment is as shallow as flattery, but kind word or favorable remark has never fallen on barren ground.

SOMEONE WANTS A JOB

So much dissatisfaction in this world. Up in Benton county J. W. McKenzie didn't like it because he was defeated for supervisor in the Democratic primaries last summer by J. W. Hardaway. Therefore, Mr. McKenzie, who must be a stubborn Scotchman, judging from his name, is going to be a candidate at the November election and proclaims himself an Independent. Don't bet any money on him.—Jackson News.

ITCHING SORE SCALP DRY BALD PATCHES CRUST

Most scalp troubles involve a parasite of some kind—a living organism that causes infection with resulting itch, scales, crust, thin and falling hair. Here, at last, is a treatment that not only destroys the parasite but helps repair the damaged scalp and skin troubles. Stops itch almost instantly. Softens and removes crust. Cleanses and stimulates the whole scalp, making it white and wholesome and promoting growth of new hair. ## MALARIA

Speedy Relief of Chills and Fever

Don't let Malaria tear you apart with its racking chills and burning fever. Trust to no home-made or mere makeshift remedies. Take the medicine prepared especially for Malaria—Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic gives real relief from Malaria because it's a scientific combination of tasteless quinine and tonic iron. The quinine kills the Malarial infection in the blood. The iron builds up the system and helps fortify against further attack. At the first sign of any attack of Malaria take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. Better still take it regularly during the Malaria season to ward off the disease. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is absolutely harmless and tastes good. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic now comes in two sizes, 50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money. Get bottle today at any druggist.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed. How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators. Thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-borne mucus and toxins.

Second, Calotabs are directed to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds. Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

LOG CABIN GARDEN DELUXE ON BAYOU PORTAGE NORTH OF PASS CHRISTIAN BOASTS 40 ACRES OF FLORAL BEAUTY

Pretentious Home of S. C. Bingaman, Boasts Blossom-Bordered Swimming Pool, Double Half-Mile Of Roses and Waterfall.

(By Lady Banks in the Times-Picayune)

In the Adirondack and Catskill mountains, where summer homes are owned by persons to whom money is no object, pretentious and costly "log cabins" built by Vanderbilts, Huntingtons and their friends are not uncommon, but who has seen such an artistic and expensive structure gracing resorts near New Orleans?

One exists, however: Bingaman Lodge, on Bayou Portage, some two miles through Menge avenue northward from the beach at Pass Christian and in a rural section of that fashionable watering place known as Pine Hills.

Artists from different parts of the globe have declared that nothing more beautiful exists in this region than the winding reaches of Bayou Portage, twisting its way through forests of ancient live oaks and towering pines and, here and there, flowing past some nature-lover's estate, such as Mr. S. C. Bingaman has created in 40 acres of such primeval back country.

Think of the summer coolness and winter warmth of a big two-story log cabin where a living room, nearly as high, and 20 by 30 feet in dimensions, extends at right angles from the main building and shelters one end of flagstone patio opening into it. This latter treeshaded, flower-girdled outdoor sitting room extends along the house for a distance of 30 feet and stretches 15 feet from the residence to a goldfish pond on its outer edge, while windows in the luxurious living room look down a row of 20 pine trees, in one direction; across more than two acres of velvety lawn surrounding the home, in another; down a half-mile entrance walk bordered by Louis Philippe ever-blooming roses, approaching the house, and off to where waters of Bayou, swimming pool and trout preserve glimmer through the trees which shadow them.

Even on the stillest day, far overhead pines murmur their soothing melodies and perfume the air with their lung-invigorating breath, and everywhere clusters and individual giants left from Mississippi's forests, with spreading live oaks, impart a typical Gulf coast atmosphere to the scene.

Somewhat steep and spreading roofs, on different levels, lend dignity to the rustic architecture of great logs of long-leaf pine, and imposing outside stone chimneys, effectively placed, add fascination to the whole.

Who does not love a brick or stone outside chimney, carrying its graceful slopes from ground to roof, and to this appealing architectural feature Mr. Bingaman has added an historic element by constructing the one outside the end of the living room of ballast stones from ships which sailed the quiet backwaters of Biloxi Bay and its tributaries when freebooters and Spanish, French and British ships, alike, sought passage to the Mississippi river and left their ballast for street paving and garden boundaries scattered from Biloxi to New Orleans.

Looking from the massive lines of this stone chimney one sees above a side entrance to the breakfast room a graceful little shed covered with wisteria and, at the end of the house, a path hedged by more than 200 rose bushes among which are conspicuous many Radiance types in the fragrant planting, for the late Mrs. Bingaman, who helped to plan this garden, was very fond of roses.

Indeed, her voice was heard in all the planning because Mr. Bingaman, himself, designed his log cabin to crown a hill sloping westward down to Bayou Portage, and he left it to an architect to work out the details.

The feathery outlines of little cedars soften the restrained evergreen semicircular planting across the front of the house and its broad central porch, where shadows slant from some half-dozen or more spreading old oaks upon the lawn on which have been left several tree stumps as supports for large stone bowls of flowering vines.

Lovely shrubbery increases in density and variety around the sides and back of the dwelling, forming a broad shelter across the end of the patio opposite the living room and disclosing ligustrums among flowering bushes with some robust pink camellias and white azaleas around the sheltered patio and in its outer screen, arborvitae and Bunya Bunya pines, from the mountains of Southern Queensland, and commonly known as "monkey trees" in New Orleans (where their rare and beautiful foliage and lofty crowns are seldom seen) to give height to the planting.

The outer corner of the living room is hidden by a tall slender cedar above a clump of dwarf bananas, with tall bananas beyond, and white jasmine cover a trellis at a window while butterfly lilies and flowering shrubs lean against its log foundations and, at the corner of the main building, a tall ginkgo tree mingles its maidenhair-fern foliage with cedars and ligustrums reaching above the roof to soften the structural angle.

So sheltered is this blossom-filled patio with its flower boxes and pots artistically disposed and its gold-fish basin upon the outer rim, that tropical plants are slow to feel the approach of winter and one finds, here, an ideal lounging place when cold weather chills exposed porches, and there is diversion in watching the flash of goldfish at play in and out of floating water hyacinths and graceful upreaching aquatic plants.

Off from one side of the house Mr. Bingaman has quite an orchard of pear trees, while blackberries and youngberries, which furnish young-berry fine for the table.

Looking about upon the verdant loveliness in every direction no one could imagine that only seven years ago the whole 40 acres was nothing but sand and forest trees where now exists one of the most beautiful estates on the coast, with its two preserves for green trout, its natural swimming pool in a ravine framed by trees and shrubs, its orchards, flower borders and abundant roses.

Indeed, the swimming pool, alone, is well worth a visit for its 40 or 50 feet of length and 30 of width overflows in a little waterfall at one end whose tinkle and murmur make music to the splash of swimmers in its uniform depths, and a fountain dashes rain high into an overhanging oak and feeds the pool with ever fresh water.

The planting around this pool has been done with discriminating artistry so that nothing is missed of gleaming water and graceful outlines. A few little willows occur, at intervals, beneath the overleaning oaks, and ginger lilies, clumps of small caladiums, ribbon grass and ferns offer occasional groups of beautifully contrasted foliage.

So skillfully has this pond been constructed in the ravine that its appearance is just as naturalistic as Mr. Bingaman's game preserves, yonder on the bayou, where he brought down 52 quail in one day last autumn; and the green trout streams where this outdoor lover has a supply of speckled trout, weighing three and four pounds, and knows how to cook as well as catch them.

Auto Plants Invest Millions in 1936 Market

The automobile industry is investing millions of dollars this Fall in new plants, machinery and tools for the 1936 models, many of which will be introduced before the New York Automobile Show opens November 2. Plymouth alone has made an advance investment of $11,500,000, according to D. S. Eddins (lower inset). Charles C. Williams (left) and Joseph B. ...

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an open competitive examination for Railway Postal Clerk.

Applications may be filed with the civil-service district office nearest the applicant, or with the U. S. Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications must be on file not later than October 28, 1935.

Applicants must have reached their eighteenth but not their thirty-first birthday on the date of the close of receipt of applications, except that these age limits do not apply to persons granted military preference. Applicants must measure at least 5 feet 6 inches in height in bare feet, and must weigh at least 130 pounds without clothing. They must be in sound physical health and capable of enduring arduous exertion.

Persons interested should apply at once for information to Fred L. Herlihy or Henry Capdepon, secretaries of the U. S. Civil Service Board of Examiners, at the post office in this city.

TO BUILD AIRPORTS

The construction of many airports will result from WPA projects. Already 146 airports have been given allotments, and it is estimated that upward of 500 may be embraced in the program. Florida, with 43 projects, leads all states so far in the number of projects, but not in the total cost.

NEUTRALITY COSTS

Exporters are grumbling over the neutrality proclamation, which inevitably followed the joint resolution of Congress, framed to take the profit out of war. Congress virtually abandoned the doctrine of the freedom of the seas for neutrals. The nation will discover that it costs something to be neutral.

BACK TO STATES

Frank C. Walker, director of the National Emergency Council, says that, with improved conditions, local governments and private welfare agencies must assume greater share of relief work.

MILLION DOLLARS A DAY

"Baby Bonds," which went on sale March 1st, are bringing into the Treasury more than a million dollars a day.

REJECTS $10,000

Mrs. W. Baynard Cutting has informed the Vice-President that "in view of the circumstances in which I find myself," she would not be justified in accepting the $10,000 appropriation ordinarily made by the Senate to nearest of kin of dead senators.

PERMISSION

Before entering the waters around Cocos Island, President Roosevelt requested and received the formal permission of President Jimenez of Costa Rica.

WEATHER FROM SIBERIA

Because "much of our weather comes originally from Siberia," the Weather Bureau is seeking to secure daily radio reports from Russia on conditions in Siberia.

CAPITOL ACTIVITIES

(By Walker Wood, Secretary of State)

GOVERNOR Conner has appointed Governor Hugh White, and the three members of the Highway Commission, and others, as delegates to the 23rd annual convention of U. S. Good Roads Association in Nashville, October 23-24; he also appointed the three members of the State Tax Commission, together with a number of financial leaders of the State, as delegates to the National Tax Association meeting in Oklahoma City.

Contracts for highway projects in several Mississippi counties, involving an expenditure of approximately $350,000 were awarded by the State Highway Department Tuesday of last week. The projects were in Monroe, DeSoto, Bolivar, Claiborne, Jefferson, Yazoo and Forrest counties.

Agricultural leaders in the Mississippi Delta have launched a movement to secure location at Delta Experiment Station at Stoneville of a U. S. Regional laboratory to make further study to improve the quality and develop new uses for cotton, its products and by-products.

The first vacancy in the newly-elected legislature to convene in January, 1936, was caused Sunday, October 13, by the sudden death of Kenneth Fleming Huddleston, age 61, of Jasper county, who succumbed to a heart attack while walking in a field near his home at Heidelberg.

Judge Sydney Smith has been appointed to the important resolution committee of the American Bar Association, an honor that is richly deserved, and a position he will fill with honor to himself and the State of Mississippi.

The members of the Fourth Estate in Mississippi, their wives, sons and daughters, representing the daily, weekly press and the commercial printers, were honored at several banquets in Jackson during the Mississippi Free State Fair, as well as being the honored guests of the Fair on Monday.

Highway 78 Association was organized at New Albany, October 15. Representatives were present from Pontotoc, DeSoto, Lee, Union, Benton, Marshall and Tippah counties. The purpose of the association is the paving of the Bankhead highway which passes through the above counties and Itawamba county.

Congressman W. M. Whittington, H. L. Gary, John Petty, Sam Montgomery, of Greenwood, N. P. and Ben Sturdivant, of Glendora, and A. B. Friend, of Sardis, presented a request to Governor Conner last week to submit to the extraordinary session of the Legislature a measure providing for organization of flood control districts in the Tallahatchie, Yazoo and Colwater areas for the purpose of securing federal aid for these projects.

The Mississippi Free State Fair, which closed on Saturday of last week, was the largest and best State Fair ever held in Mississippi. It was truly the Show Window of Mississippi, visualizing through the eye a panoramic view of the Magnolia State of today, her opportunities, possibilities, and her resources natural, industrial and agricultural.

The Civilian Conservation Camps, near Meadville, near Biloxi, near Meridian, and north of Bay St. Louis will be discontinued on October 31, according to Major General Van Horn Moseley, commanding officer of the Fourth Army Corps area. The reduction in these, and camps in other states, to the number of 65, is due to readjustments in the strength of the CCC which has been ordered by President Roosevelt.

A pleasing echo of the recent Mississippi Press meet held last week was that Hon. G. E. Denley, editor of the Coffeeville Courier, and former member of the State Senate, won the $25.00 prize in the State Fair Editorial Contest.

PIONEER JOURNALIST PASSES ON

(Clarksdale Register)
EDGAR S. WILSON, 77, pioneer Mississippi journalist and author of a newspaper column known as "Mirrors of Mississippi" appearing in the press throughout the commonwealth, died at his home, "The Cedars," near Jackson recently.

Edgar S. Wilson, peace to his soul—was a great man and kind.

He was journalist of the old school—he thought, wrote as the old school thought, wrote as they wrote, but he kept abreast of the times in everything he wrote.

He was one of Mississippi's outstanding historians, probably one of the greatest, as he had a happy faculty of linking the old with the new. His column, "Mirrors of Mississippi" was one of the most interesting that appeared within the pages of the last decades, bar none.

There was something in that column that made it stand out above all the rest.

At his home at "The Cedars," Mr. Wilson looked out on the world as from a watchtower. He brought to bear all the experiences of a long life to understand the present, consequently saw things of the hour in a true light.

He was a wise counselor, a mentor of the press. It is with genuine regret that we take note of his passing.

IT'S TRUE!

By Wiley Padan

"IT'S TRUE! that the Viennese composers Walter Jurmann and Bronislav Kaper, European creators of Jan Kiepura song hits, wrote 'Tillie the Tight Rope Walker' which Miss Courtneidge sings in 'The Perfect Gentleman,'" says artist Wiley Padan. MOLLY Lamont, who made her screen debut in "Jalna," will have a featured role in RKO filming of "Seven Keys to Baldpate."

Marion Davies' next Cosmopolitan production released by Warner Bros. will be "Glorious."

Verree Teasdale and Allan Jenkins will have roles in the "Petrified Forest." Leslie Howard is the star and Bette Davis has the feminine lead.

Richard Arlen is to have the chief role in "The Calling of Dan Matthews," a Harold Bell Wright story.

James Oliver Curwood's story, "God's Country and the Woman," is scheduled for picturization by Warner Bros. George Brent and Bette Davis will have the leading parts.

Pauline Lord, who was such a splendid Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, gave up pictures when she was assigned an insignificant part in "So Red the Rose," but she returned to the films when she was offered the part of the mother in "A Feather in Her Hat."

Sybil Jason, the six-year-old from Cape Town, Africa, who hopes to

WHO'S WHO AT STANISLAUS

BROTHER FABIAN

Almost the first name that the boy learns at Stanislaus is that of Brother Fabian. He's the man who "guards the purse" of each student and all go to him first to arrange for their pocket money for each week.

Brother Fabian is 73 years of age, hale and hearty, with a jovial smile and a genial disposition. He has been the treasurer of St. Stanislaus since 1916 and has filled that important office with devotedness, attention to duty, tact and patience for the past nineteen years.

Brother Fabian was born in France where he received his early training as a Brother of the Sacred Heart. He came to this country around 1882 and his superiors sent him to the small but flourishing branch of the order in Canada. There he was a devoted teacher, rising rapidly from post to post until he was made principal of the Brother's School in Nashua, New Hampshire. In 1903 he was transferred to the United States and was appointed successively the head of the House of Training in Metuchen, New Jersey and of the Boys' Industrial School in Mobile, Alabama. When Brother Alloysius died at The Bay in 1916, Brother Fabian succeeded him as treasurer of St. Stanislaus College.

Except for a short time in 1929 when he became sick and had to rest from all work, he has been constantly at his office desk for all those years.

Brother Fabian's patience is inexhaustible. His desk is on the opposite side of the room from the grill where the students receive their little allowance. He may have walked back and forth a great number of times, yet if a boy should come to the window and call, "Brother Fabian," he will leave whatever work he is at, and go to satisfy the begging student without the least sign of impatience.

May his sunny smile, his cheery voice, and genial disposition remain at Stanislaus for many years to come.

SIXTH TRADE TREATY

The treaty recently negotiated with Colombia is the sixth to be concluded under the Reciprocity Act of 1923. Other agreements were made with Cuba, Haiti, Belgium, Sweden and Brazil.

Under the new agreement Colombia grants tariff concessions from 10 to 90 per cent on more than half the goods we sell her. In return, Colombia receives a promise to keep her principle exports on our free list. These include coffee, bananas, crude ipecac, uncut emeralds, raw reptile skins and platinum.

V. C. Jones P. T. A.

The P. T. A. of Valena C. Jones School held a special meeting on Tuesday afternoon of this week at the school. Quite a few parents were present. The principal spoke concerning the new school, and told of the many ways in which the P. T. A. could help. All members present pledged their support. The P. T. A. also gave its support to other worthwhile projects, one of which was the raising of funds for a Kosciuszko School Library. The P. T. A. has a quilt top made last term during the recreation period sponsored by the P. E. R. and they plan to complete it and raffie the finished quilt in the near future.

Mrs. Pollard gave a short talk on what the Congress of Parents and Teachers was doing to help improve the Curriculum in the schools of Mississippi. The Bulletin on the Standardization of Rural and Elementary Schools was discussed, and the members decided to do all in their power to put Valena C. Jones School on the Standardized list.

The body also decided to pay the necessary fees for membership in the District and State P. T. A. Meeting was adjourned to meet again on its regular meeting day, Thursday, November 14, 1935.
Mrs. J. Bell, President.
Mrs. J. G. Thompson, Secretary.

Glamorous Spell of Canal Life in "Farmer Takes a Wife"

Civilization marched westward over the turbulent Erie waterways in four-mile-an-hour boats and strong men hammered out an empire and held the love of beautiful women with their brawny fists.

That is the glamorous, action-filled picture of America in the roaring 1850's which Fox Film's "The Farmer Takes a Wife" brings on Sunday and Monday to the A. & G. Theater.

About the tender love story of Ganet Gaynor and Henry Fonda, the stars of the picture, all of the excitement, humor, romance and near-tragedy of this never to be forgotten epoch centers.

Miss Gaynor is a girl of the Erie waterways, fascinated by the nomadic, gypsy-like existence. Fonda is a boy who works on the canals merely to earn enough money to buy the farm he has always wanted.

Although these two realize that there is this fundamental difference between them, they cannot help being drawn together by love. As the picture progresses, Fonda's fortunes prosper and he prepares to withdraw from Charles Bickford, the canal bully, and his rival for her affection.

In a pounding, action-filled climax, Fonda proves his courage and his right to Miss Gaynor's love.

Walter D. Edmond's widely-read novel, "Romeo Haul," was the basis for both the stage play and the picture of "The Farmer Takes a Wife." In the supporting cast of the picture, which includes more than fifty speaking parts, are Slim Summerville, Andy Devine, Roger Imhof, Jane Withers and Margaret Hamilton.

SCOUT ACTIVITIES

GIRL SCOUT WEEK PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

MRS. J. B. Goldman, captain of Girl Scout Troop One recently announced the program for the observation of National Girl Scout Week, October 27-Nov. 2, to be followed by the Bay St. Louis Girl Scouts.

On Sunday, Church Day, the Protestant Scouts will attend the Methodist Sunday School in uniform. Mr. Alexander Allison will conduct a special Sunday School lesson for them. The Catholic Scouts will attend their own church, uniformed, and in a body. At five o'clock a Scouts' own service will be held in the scout house.

Monday is home-making day. Each scout will perform some small task that will make her home brighter and happier. This she will report to her patrol leader.

By Tuesday, handicraft day, each girl is to submit some article, made by herself, for display.

On Wednesday, thrift day, each girl will earn by her own efforts, her girl scout dues for the month of November.

Hostess day is Thursday and on that day the scouts will entertain their mothers and the Troop Committee at the scout house at 4 o'clock.

On Friday, Citizenship day, All Scouts will report at the scout house at 3:30 o'clock to hear an address on citizenship by City Commissioner Grady Perkins. Each girl will be able to tell of some way in which she can make herself a better citizen.

Saturday is health day. The scouts will go on a hike and each girl will be able to prove that she practiced the five points of health.

E. JACOBS, Troop Scribe.

SALES AT NEW HIGH

Department store sales throughout the country in September reached the highest point they have touched since November, 1931, except for the annual holiday spurt in December of each year according to an index kept by the Federal Reserve Board.

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

TO the average man there is nothing better than a steak, thick and juicy and of the quality correctly cooked. Broiled steak is the aristocracy of all steak dishes. A steak may be broiled over hot coals or under an electric coil with satisfactory results. In either case the broiler should be heated thoroughly, then rubbed with suet. The steak trimmed, placed upon it and seared with intense heat. As soon as one side is seared turn the meat on the side. Allow 3 minutes for searing each side, then finish cooking at a lower temperature. Be sure and turn the steak often. A rare to medium 2 inch steak will require 15 to 20 minutes broiling. An inch and a half steak 12 minutes. Serve on a hot platter with a dressing of plenty of butter, salt and pepper. Garnish as desired and serve at once on hot plates.

Beef Steak with French Fried Onions

Slice onions 1/4 inch thick and separate into rings, then soak in milk for 1/2 hour, drain and dip in flour. Place in a frying basket and immerse in deep boiling fat. In a very few moments they will be crisp and golden brown. Drain on paper, dust with salt and pepper. Serve with a perfectly cooked steak.

Beef with Mustard Wine Sauce

Spread 3 tablespoons prepared mustard on 2 pounds of stewing beef cut in cubes. Sauté 1 1/2 cups sliced onions, 2 diced carrots and 3 wafers, thin slices of garlic in 4 tablespoons of shortening. Lift out and brown meat in shortening.

Ragout of Beef

1 lb. chuck steak cut in cubes
1 large onion sliced
10 whole cloves
Paprika
4 cups canned tomatoes
1 clove garlic
1 teaspoon salt
1 Bay leaf
Have the butcher cut the meat in cubes about 2 inches square. Sear the cubes in a heavy frying pan, add the tomatoes, onion, garlic, cloves, salt, bay leaf and paprika. Cover and cook at a very low temperature for about two hours or until meat is tender. Remove the clove of garlic and bay leaf and serve at once on hot boiled rice.

Planked Steak

Broil a porterhouse steak lightly on both sides. Meanwhile, heat a well-seasoned oak or maple plank until it smokes, then rub it with butter and arrange the steak on it. Fill a pastry bag with a large strainer with fluffy mashed potatoes and pipe them all around the steak.

Added Roominess, Greater Safety Feature 1936 Motor Car Models

DETROIT, Mich.—Seeking to provide more steady employment for workers in the automobile industry, leading manufacturers prepare for the early introduction of 1936 models as a spur to fall and winter buying. Marked by the adoption of added safety features and the provision of greater comfort for the passenger, new cars already are rolling off production lines in Michigan factories. Above: Interior of a new Buick, one of the first lines to be announced, showing the widened rear seat and increased head-room found in the solid steel "turret top" body. Below: The same car as it appears from above with its one-piece, seamless steel roof.

Gulfcoast CCC Camps To Close, According To Headquarter Orders

According to orders received by Captain O. J. James, Mobile, who has been in charge of Camp Mc Clellan, the camp will be abandoned about November 1.

The 200 boys at the camp have been engaged in planting and painting trees and working on some road building projects. They have used 16 of the National Guard barracks at the camp. The camp at Kiln also will be abandoned according to officers.

The camps are being closed for the reason the President ordered the number reduced, bulk of the work for which the camps were established accomplished.

The camp at Kiln has served to splendid purpose. Officers and members have made many friends locally and their leaving is cause of general regret.

Notice
The Board of Supervisors of Hancock County will receive sealed bids for the sale of the small frame building located on the Court House grounds, and which is now used as jailer's quarters. The said bids are to be submitted to the Board at their meeting on November 4th, 1935. The said bids to state the sum in cash that the bidder will pay for the building, and the bidder is to demolish and remove the same within thirty (30) days from the date of the acceptance of said bid.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Recent Fire at 'Gulfside' Dealt Staggering Blow To Negro Center of Endeavor on Coast.

N. O. Item Writes Editorial Plea—What Institution Like
Gulfside Means to Community—Contributions
Solicited—Cause Constructive and Appealing

EVERYONE who sympathizes with the long effort of the Southern Negro to improve his condition and become a better citizen, through sound and constructive educational and social measures will sympathize genuinely and deeply with the Gulfside Association in the altogether deplorable loss of its main building, just this side of Waveland. The famous old Jackson House went up in flames early this week with all its furnishings and equipment. In an hour or two one of the main fruits of many years of devoted effort by Bishop R. E. Jones and his many co-workers, both colored and white, disappeared.

It was the core of a little settlement which was coming to contribute more and more, not alone to the advancement of industrious and self-respecting Negroes, but to the improvement of their relations with their white neighbors in this part of the South. For Bishop Jones has shown remarkable insight in this undertaking and his work has been constructive as well as constructive. Gulfside, considering its youth and meagre resources, was nonetheless taking rank on a corresponding scale with such Negro enterprises for self-advancement as those at Hampton and Tuskegee.

ITS means were so strained by six years of depression that every expenditure not imperatively necessary had been curtailed. On this account only $5000 of insurance was carried on the building. Though dating back to General Jackson's time it was a staunchest sort of structure—of a type in this respect rarely erected in our day. The restoration of it, even on present-day lines will cost far more than the insurance.

The Bishop and his associates took the place when it was lying unused and decrepit in the midst of wide swamps on both sides. By steady degrees their persistence developed Gulfside around it into one of the most attractive places to which striving Negroes may resort for social, educational and religious purposes.

ITS directors used its facilities as far and as constantly as it could make them reach. One of its notable services has been cultivation of Negro folk-music, leading each year to an excellent open-air rendition of spirituals and folksongs that commend themselves highly to the appreciation of large gatherings of the discriminating White and Negro people of the Coast, many often coming from long distances to hear the big choruses assembled from fifteen or twenty communities.

Friends of Gulfside, and admirers of the spirit in which Bishop Jones has carried on its work, have already taken steps to raise funds for the restoration of Jackson House. They have selected the Merchants Bank & Trust Company, Bay St. Louis, to receive subscriptions for that purpose. Bishop Jones announces that contributions directed to the Merchants Bank will be applied to it.

BIG DOUBLE CIRCUS HAS STUPENDOUS PROGRAM—TO HAVE MATINEE AND NIGHT PERFORMANCES IN BAY CITY, NOVEMBER 1ST.

The Rice Bros. Circus organized by Old Dan Rice in 1852 will exhibit in Bay St. Louis, Friday, November 1st.

The No. 1 advertising car, is now in this vicinity. Billposters, banners, lithographers, radio men and press agents are heralding the great event, and soon everyone will be planning for a gala visit to the world's largest "big top," the center of the biggest canvas city ever assembled to thrill, entertain and amuse a great and discriminating populace.

Pre-eminent feature is Allen King trained wild animal exhibition. Allen King is acknowledged to be the greatest wild animal trainer of all time. There are 200 performers including the famous 6 Olympian European acrobats; dainty Mary Miller, aerialist, Josie, the famous equestrienne, and 60 internationally celebrated and beloved clowns. The Rice Bros. horse fair has become a feature amazing in its appeal throughout the North American continent.

The big holiday will be ushered in with an immense street parade at noon. Scores of horses, elaborately carved and gilded allegorical floats and tableau wagons together with many cages and open dens of Allen King's animals will be seen in the procession. There will be two herds of elephants and a caravan of camels from the great desert. Three hands and two steam calliopes will furnish music. Doors to the menagerie open at 1 and 7 p. m. The big show will start at 2 and 8 p. m.

BEAUTIFUL AL FRESCO WEDDING CEREMONY AT LAROSE BEACH HOME.

Claiming wide attention and attracting considerable interest was the marriage of Miss Margaret Elizabeth Larose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henry Larose, Bay St. Louis, to Mr. Earl Madison Buckley, Gulfport, Saturday evening, October 19, 5 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, in the presence of some two hundred guests.

The setting for this beautiful event was the front lawn and gardens of the Larose residence, an al fresco affair, only possible at this late season in the balmy clime of Mississippi's Coastal strand. Emerging from the residence, the bridal party came down the porch steps to a wide canvas-covered walk, extending several yards eastward and a long path led to an improvised altar-like arrangement, where Rev. Leo F. Fahey performed the brief and solemn ceremony of the Catholic church.

Preceding the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered, Dr. Cummings H. McCall, of Gulfport, sang "O, Promise Me," with violin obligato by Miss Louise Louise Armstrong. Mrs. R. W. Bryant, of Gulfport, at the piano played Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus as a processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as recessional and during the ceremony "Traumara." Baskets in tall settings and filled with white chrysanthemums and tube rose buds and blossoms, profuse and tasty in arrangement, were positioned on either sides of the aisle in equidistant spaces.

The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of ivory chiffon velvet, fashioned on princess lines, with ruffled train and tucked sleeves ending in deep buttoned cuffs. Her veil of illusion fell from a coronet of lace, seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Larose was given in marriage by her father while Mr. Buckley entered with his best man, Mr. Ashton Hardy, of Gulfport.

Miss Noel Calhoun, of New Orleans, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Jeanette Buckley, of Gulfport, sister of the groom, bridesmaid. They wore similar gowns of fuchsia chiffon velvet of renaissance style and carried arm bouquets of pink rosebuds. Miss Patricia Gex, cousin of the bride, as junior bridesmaid, wore an exquisite old fashioned dress of pink taffeta, and carried an old fashioned bouquet.

Dr. J. Henry Larose, of New Orleans, brother of the bride, was groomsmen.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Buckley receiving were Dr. and Mrs. Larose and members of the bridal party. The table was centered with an attractive wedding cake and white burning tapers. Sandwiches, mints and punch were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckley left later for a motor trip to points in Florida. For travelling, the bride wore a charming two-piece suit of black waffle crepe with hat and accessories to match.

Miss Larose is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larose and is an attractive member of the younger sets in Bay St. Louis and New Orleans.

After October 27, the young couple will be at their home, a gift from the bride's parents, at 1002 North Beach Boulevard, Bay St. Louis, Miss.

The bride is the accomplished and attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henry Larose, residents of Bay St. Louis, and is generally admired for her beauty and many attributes of charm; of an engaging personality and pleasing to know.

The groom is well known in business and social lanes of the Gulf Coast. He is a valued attaché of the Hancock County Bank, holding a responsible position of trust at the Gulfport bank, and numbers his friends wherever he is known. He is an exemplary young man and well worthy of the excellent young lady whose favor and hand he has won.

Following the ceremony a reception was held within the spacious and beautiful Larose home at Cedar Point, on North Beach Boulevard. A room had been set aside for the numerous presents received. Here many beautiful and useful things had been displayed in order friends might enjoy the privilege of viewing the various gifts. These came from many sections, showing the popularity in which the couple is held and the general acquaintance which they enjoy over a wide section of this part of the country.

MRS. L. DICKSON ENTERTAINS THURSDAY BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. Laurent Dickson entertained the "Thursday" Bridge Club Friday of last week at her home in Carroll avenue, the party proving one of thorough delight.

Mrs. C. E. Craft, 1, and Mrs. Jimmie Jones, 2, won the high score prizes; Miss Clara Kergosien, low. In addition to the regular members a number of special guests were present.

RETURNS FROM VISIT TO NEW YORK CITY.

"Jimmie" Brown, splendid young son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Brown, residents of Pine Hills, (Mr. Brown in business in this city), returned home this week from a three-week visit to New York City, which, needless to say, was thoroughly enjoyed. Young Mr. Brown says it was "quite chilly" in the metropolis, experiencing considerable weather at "22 above." However, that only added zest and pep and was all the more desirable.

TACKY PARTY BY P. T. A. COUNCIL AT MASONIC TEMPLE SCORES.

The tacky party given by the Hancock County Council of P. T. A. at the Masonic Temple, Tuesday night, in observance of P. T. A. week, was a hilariously successful affair.

Most of the large crowd, who attended, came in costume. The originality of attire was most amusing, making it was most difficult for the judges. After much deliberation on their part, Mrs. F. J. Nelson was awarded first prize for the tackiest costume. Her unique outfit caused much amusement.

Miss Lydia Boyd Blount ran a close second. She remained in character throughout the evening, with her bespeckled face, string tied locks, and toothless grin.

The affair served as a gathering for all the P. T. A.'s of the county. Each association was well represented, Waveland winning the prize for having the most people present.

The evening was spent in playing games and singing. Miss Ethel Sylvester and Miss Smith, of Webb School were in charge of the entertainment.

Part of the proceeds of the party will be sent to the state association as a birthday gift.

MRS. K. W. PEPPERDENE HOSTESS TO LARGE AFTERNOON PARTY.

Mrs. K. W. Pepperdene was hostess Friday afternoon at her residence in Citizen street to the first of the larger luncheon-bridge parties of the fall-winter season entertaining at eight tables of players.

The house was effectively decorated throughout with Mexican daisies and other flowers characteristic of the golden fall season, accentuating in color and fragrance fall was at hand, and forming a fitting setting to both a charming and enjoyable party.

A two-course luncheon was served, daintily and in charming motif. Eight trophies, one for each table, were awarded—a double deck of de Luxe playing cards, appropriate and serviceable.

Mrs. Pepperdene is one of the most popular and successful hostesses of this section and her parties from time to time at her hospitable home are always a signal for pleasant afternoon or evening, a contribution to the votaries of local social activities.

MARY LOUISE CRAWFORD TO ATTEND SAINT MARY OF THE WOODS.

Miss Mary Louise Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Crawford, left recently for college, Our Lady of the Woods, six miles from Terre Haute, Ind., where she matriculated for the four-year academic course.

Miss Crawford is a graduate of Bay Hi School Class '35 and received a full and totally free scholarship, which includes board and tuition and all incidental expenses.

She was awarded this scholarship for the excellence of her high school work, rating high in units and merit and secondly as a graceful and becoming gesture.

Miss Crawford's grandmother, Mrs. Anna Owen Crawford, recently celebrating her 91st birthday, and residing in Bay St. Louis, was a pupil of St. Mary of the Woods when 9 years old. This interesting incident was not lost sight of after Miss Crawford's qualifications had warranted awarding this scholarship.

ROTARY CLUB TO GIVE BIG ALL HALLOWE'EN BANQUET AND FROLIC.

Complimentary to their members and lady folk and guests, Bay St. Louis Rotary Club will entertain at an All Halloween banquet and frolic at Hotel Weston, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Congressman Wm. M. Colmer will be the speaker of the evening and a floor show will be given during the progress of the banquet. Reservations should be made to the secretary, Rene de Montuzin, Jr., as early as possible, however, no later than Tuesday. Pass Christian and Picayune Club members and guests will also participate.
